Teaching How to Fish

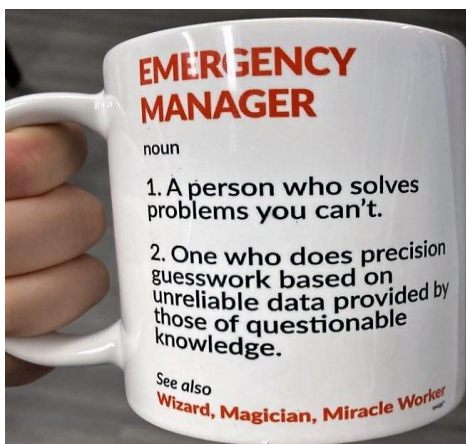

Many have asked on this distro How do find so many Emergency Management Employment Opportunities every week. I use multiple resources:

- Members of this email distro provide me employment opportunities
- Different social media sources (list below)
- USA Jobs (listed under Featured Opportunities)
- I also use some of the commercial job search resources such as indeed
 - Go to <https://www.indeed.com/>
 - Under “What”, Enter Emergency Management
 - Click “Find Jobs”, you can further refine your search, by location, salary, company, experience level, benefits, etc.
 - You can create your own Indeed account (no charge) account and have daily alerts sent directly to your own email.

Information collected through this process prompted a review of the certification requirements which concluded that the Knowledge, Skills, Abilities, and Behaviors assessed in the essay are represented elsewhere in the certification application and examination. The online application is being updated now to account for the removal of the essay requirement: More info.
