

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

APRIL 21, 2025

In January 2007, Joe Saleh created an Emergency Management Opportunities (EM Ops) Yahoo Group to inform the community of interest about EM employment opportunities. Over the years I have subscribed to various job boards and as I received EM employment opportunities, I created a report distributed weekly via email.

If you have questions, please don't hesitate to contact us. Thank you.

Back to the Basics: Navigating Crisis Leadership by Andrew Pence

Crises, by their very nature, are inevitable. From historic catastrophes to today's challenges, they continue to pose significant threats, reminding communities of the importance of preparation. The catastrophic floods in the southeastern United States in 2024 and wildfires in the winter of 2024-2025 that ravaged Los Angeles County highlight this reality. Although the exact timing, location, and severity of these events could not be predicted, their occurrence was not unexpected. This stark reality underscores the need for extensive pre-crisis planning and preparation to mitigate the impact of such events. Read Article

Keeping Humans in the Loop: The Future of Emergency Management by Justin Kates and Emily Martuscello

In an era in which disasters are increasingly complex, and technology's role is ever-expanding, the landscape of emergency management is undergoing a seismic shift. Emergency managers face challenges ranging from escalating natural hazards and cyberthreats to pandemics that cripple nations. Leaders grapple with a lack of resources, an overload of incomplete and constantly changing information, and an ever-expanding scope of responsibilities. Amid this uncertainty, the emergence of powerful artificial intelligence (AI) tools generates excitement and apprehension, raising profound questions about the future of emergency response. ## EVENTS CALENDAR

National VOAD 2025 Conference
Louisville, KY

Date: May 19-22, 2025
More Info

National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (VOAD) was established over 50 years ago in response to the challenges faced by disaster organizations following Hurricane Camille, a Category 5 storm that impacted the Gulf Coast in August 1969. The annual national conference brings together emergency management volunteers and professionals from across the country to share best practices and new ideas and to develop whole community solutions for building more resilient communities.

Governor's Hurricane Conference
Palm Beach, Florida

Date: May 11-16, 2025
More Info

The Governor's Hurricane Conference focuses on hurricane planning, preparedness, response, recovery, and mitigation. This conference is an opportunity for participants to learn from the successes of others and identify proven best practices. Learn from past incidents what worked well and what mistakes to avoid before it is too late.

COMMUNITY EMERGENCY RESPONSE TEAM (CERT)

If you are looking for an opportunity to network and help your local community, consider volunteering with your local Community Emergency Response Team (CERT). The Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) program educates volunteers about disaster preparedness for the hazards that may impact their area and trains them in basic disaster response skills, such as fire safety, light search and rescue, team organization, and disaster medical operations.
